Policy Facilitator provides proposals to Facilitator for consideration in New Business: _____

Proposal Made By: You Are Worth It home group

Proposal: To have world add "A Spiritual Journey" reading to the suggested reading list itself under the guide to local service. As well as anywhere else the suggested readings are listed as we ARE a spiritual not religious program. Allowing us to be more open to our inclusiveness that ANY addict can hear our message of hope and promise of freedom.

_____

Intent of Proposal: _____

If world has it listed as a reading meaning na.org then under guide to local service area of website. Then it should be included in the suggested reading section as well as we are all inclusive right? Strengthening that the primary purpose is to carry the message that ANY addict and to us that means WE are more open and inclusive. When a newcomer that has issues with the God thing that "A Spiritual Journey" reading can make all the difference of them coming back possibly saving another life because our message of ANY addict just included them as well when they hear that.

Results of Proposal: (To be recorded by the Policy Facilitator)

A Spiritual Journey

We each find a way to surrender, but that does not mean we all come to believe in God. Many of our members have been clean for years as atheists. For some of us, coming to believe that NA can accommodate our atheism has itself been a leap of faith. We are welcome no matter what we believe. NA has no opinion on how our members define or practice spirituality. Our individual challenge is to find a definition of spirituality that makes sense to us. By listening carefully and with an open mind to a range of members' opinions and experiences, we form our own understanding that we can use in our own recovery.

Policy Facilitator provides proposals to Facilitator for consideration in New Business: _____

Proposal Made By: Joe R.

Proposal: Cancel P.O. Box and stop using it completely. Make all 7th tradition donations by zelle or cash app.

My experience has been that only two groups have sent donations to the P.O. box. One sends cash and the other sends checks. If a check is being sent from a bank then the funds can be sent electronically. The amount of donations received via mail barely pay for the yearly fee. Two out of twenty eight groups listed on the treasurer's report results in 7% of groups utilizing the PO box. Anything sent by mail can be emailed.
