IV. Group Reports

- Alive & Kicking - Scottie J -The group made a donation in the amount of $50 to the ASC this month. There are an average of 300 meeting goers passing through the group's various meetings every month. There have been several changes to the schedule—namely, that the Friday night men's meeting is no longer happening, in lieu of a Friday night podium meeting. The group hosted a virtual speaker jam as a fundraiser for their upcoming 52nd anniversary, which went well.

- B. Beauty of Recovery - Samantha & Sharon - The group recently held a business meeting at which they elected trusted servants, established a schedule for a regular group conscience, requested Houston Area Policy documents, and inquired after anything pertaining to rules & regulations for meetings. The group's elected GSR is Gloria M, while their GSRa is Sharon W. The group's weekly meetings are held Thursdays at 6:30pm.
- C. Familia Unida - Mary R - The group's meetings are sparsely attended (save their monthly birthday night with food), and as such the group is requesting support from Houston area members to bolster numbers.
- D. Hope Sweet Hope - Ryan S - There was one birthday celebrant for the month of June, Fallon, with three years clean. The group made an area donation in the amount of $55. The group meets on Thursdays at 7pm, both virtually and in-person.
- E. Jekyll and Hyde - Kip S - The group is once again requesting the assistance and support of men with a working knowledge of the Steps in order to sponsor men within the Camp Hope facility. The group's meetings take place on Wednesdays at 7pm and Sundays at 6pm. The group made a donation to the ASC this month in the amount of $50.
- F. Keep it Clean - Roberto C - There were several birthdays celebrated in the month of June, including one in the amount of 39 years. There will be a speaker, Robin from A&K, on 7/6.
- G. Keep it Real - Mo Z - The group's meetings average 15 attendees per session. Keep it Real requests assistance from the Houston area by promoting their upcoming events, which include a movie night on 10/4 and an anniversary in December.
- H. New Heights - Charlie N - There has been an immense upswing in attendees to this meeting, which takes place on Mondays and Wednesdays at 8pm. There has been an outpouring of support from members of other home groups. The group plans to take a hospitality suite timeslot on Saturday of the upcoming HACNA. They have also allocated funds in order to get Basic Texts into the hands of newcomers at the convention.
- I. New Pathfinders - Cameron D - The group is expanding, welcoming new home group members into their fold. They are celebrating their monthly birthday night tomorrow 7/7 at 8pm; their regular meetings are held on Mondays at 8pm.
- J. Our Common Bond - Nikki T - The group had a birthday celebration recently with one attendee celebrating two years. The last month has seen a large increase in newcomer attendance. There is a new meeting that is opening at OCB: a Friday night, 9pm candlelight SPAD meeting.

- K. Phoenix Group - Jason C - The group is still meeting on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:30pm. There was a large birthday celebration on the last Thursday of the month, with 8 celebrants for June. The group averages 15-20 attendants per meeting.
- L. Rainbow of Hope - Dave V - The group sees an average of 25 attendees on Tuesdays and 20 attendees on Thursdays. Nothing else to report.
- M. Recovery at Work - Kenneth C - The group hosted a speaker jam on June 21st from 10am to 5pm, with 9 speakers and barbecue plates. The event saw an attendance of anywhere from 60 to 75 people at its peak. As this was the group's first ever speaker event (or event of any kind), they look forward to continued trending growth for future events.
- N. The Sooner the Better - Hector D - The TSTB meeting schedule has not changed. The mostly-daily meeting attendance averages 15 per meeting. The group made a donation to the ASC in the amount of $90.40. TSTB is celebrating their 27th anniversary with a drag show, to take place on Saturday 8/2 at 7pm.
- O. Saturday Night Live - Tabitha - The group meets weekly at 8pm. There has been steady strong attendance, with a mix of newcomers and oldtimers. There are currently no open positions within the group's service structure.
- P. Sunday Starters - Grace - The group is requesting support from the Houston area NA members, as the meeting is seeing dwindling attendance. The business meeting format has changed from being monthly to taking place quarterly; as such, the group will also only make donations to the ASC quarterly rather than monthly.
- Q. Third Tradition - Mindy A - The month of June saw the group celebrating two regularly-attending members with 1 and 2 years, respectively. The group is still requesting support for their weekly meeting, which takes place on Mondays at 7:30pm.
- R. Tomball New Attitudes - Michael B - The group has a steady attendance of 20-30 people per meeting. The group hosts a literature study on Tuesday nights, a speaker meeting every 2nd Friday of the month, and birthdays on the 1st Friday monthly.
